The Norman Levan Center for the Humanities and The Keck School of Medicine of USC Present

SHOULD WE RATION HEALTHCARE TO THE ELDERLY?

A Public Lecture by Dr. David A. Goldstein of the Keck School of Medicine of USC

Tuesday, November 8, 7 p.m.

Norman Levan Center for the Humanities at Bakersfield College

Dr. Goldstein is the Chief of Geriatric, Hospital, Palliative, and General Internal Medicine and Vice Chair for Clinical Affairs for the Department of Medicine at the Keck School of Medicine. He was the co-founder and serves as the Co-Director of the USC Pacific Center for Health Policy and Ethics. The Pacific Center is a sponsoring institute of curricular, scholarly, and consultative endeavors in bio-ethical and moral dilemmas ranging from the bedside to societal levels. His lecture will discuss this timely healthcare, societal, and ethical issue, one which affects many and one that will become increasingly important in light of healthcare costs and an aging population.

FREE admission and FREE parking.
