

Nancy Guidry

From: Anna Agenjo
Sent: Tuesday, November 01, 2011 9:56 AM
To: Nancy Guidry
Subject: RE: Accreditation needs

Nancy,

The number of orientations for 2010-11 can be found in this year's APR. My recollection is we do approximately 70-75 each semester.

Also the number of adjunct hours have remained the same for the last few years: approximately 300 hours per semester (18-20/week). We did not have any extra hours for Delano. That semester I did not teach a section of English 34 and worked in Delano on Thursdays.

Anna

From: Nancy Guidry
Sent: Mon 10/31/2011 10:45 AM
To: Anna Agenjo
Subject: Accreditation needs

Hi Anna,

This is what I still need for my accreditation report:

- * results of the faculty survey on orientations, so far
- * reference desk question results (I can put this into an Excel spreadsheet, which we can use in the future, as well)
- * number of orientations for the 2010-11 academic year
- * number of adjunct hours for this year, last year (2010--2011) and also 2009-2010, especially the spring 2010, when we provided library service in Delano. Did we have extra hours for this? I know one way we covered it was we taught one section less of Eng. 34

I am hoping to use some of these figures when I have my office time tomorrow.

Thanks!

Nancy