Interview Questions for O’Brien Outside Source

Please Note: The personal interview is only effective if a REAL person is being interviewed. If that isn’t possible, use another type of source as one of the two outside sources needed in your paper.

Directions: On this paper, answer the following questions as specifically as possible.

(Attach an extra sheet of paper if needed) *This form needs to be completely filled out when turned in with your O’Brien final draft to be counted as a source.

1. Full name of this source: ___________________  Date of Interview: ______________

2. This person’s current age:________

3. Explain how you know his person (relative, neighbor, friend, etc): __________________

4. Explain how long you have known this person:________

5. Describe your method for interviewing this person (phone call, email, face to face, etc):________

6. Describe what this person currently does with their time (works, retired, student, has hobbies, etc):

7. What war or documented conflicted was this person involved with? ______________

8. What branch of the military or organization were they with? What was their official rank or job title? What official responsibilities did they have during this war or conflict? How old were they then?

9. What effect/impact did this war/conflict have on this person? Why? How?

10. Does this person view this experience as mostly positive or negative? Why? How?

11. If he or she could have done anything differently during this experience, what would that be?

12. Are there any question(s) you’d like to ask this person?

13. Does this person have any final comments about his/her experience with this war/conflict?

Please thank this person for his or her time in granting this interview!